ATF ANNOUNCES $2,500 REWARD IN TOPPENISH APARTMENT ARSON

TOPPENISH, Wash. — The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) and the Toppenish Police and Fire Departments today announced a joint reward of $2,500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the June 10, 2007, fatal apartment fire located at 103 South Chestnut Street, Toppenish, Wash.

The public is asked to call ATF's toll-free hotline at 1-888-ATF-FIRE (888-283-3473) or Sergeant Adam Diaz of the Toppenish Police Department at (509) 865-4355 with any information that may help identify those responsible for this arson. The hotline is answered 24 hours a day and all calls remain confidential.

ATF is the federal agency with jurisdiction for investigating arsons. More information on ATF and its programs is at www.atf.gov.
